Subject: RE: Freedom of Information Act Request #2019-14540

The agency's response violates the FOIA. The agency has improperly invoked Exemption 6. While some of the documents in Judge Schools' hiring records might contain privacy information which could be redacted, there is no reason to decline to acknowledge whether the agency even has hiring records for Judge Schools.

The agency also does not explain why that exemption would apply to any agency e-mails that mention "Shelly Schools" even in the years prior to Judge Schools being hired as an IJ.

The agency has not met its burden to apply the GLOMAR standard and it has unlawfully withheld responsive records without legal authority to do so.
